

Students: DONATE YOUR USED BOOKS TO PRISONERS

The semester is almost over and you have all those books that you will never use again. Here's a chance to do something useful with those books. Give them to MIM's Books for Prisoners program and give prisoners a chance to educate themselves.

The demand for books in prisons, particularly political books, is tremendous. There are few education programs in prisons and prison libraries are limited or nonexistent. MIM runs a free political Books for Prisoners program that relies on donations from people like yourself. Any books and money donations are welcome.

We will be taking donations at:

This program sponsored by