

State of California
CDC FORM 695
Screening For:
CDC 602 Inmate/Parolee Appeals
CDC 1824 Reasonable Modification or Accommodation Request

PERMANENT APPEAL
ATTACHMENT

52

RE: Screening at the FIRST Level

June 21, 2012

04AA3LC1052002LP

MAIL, Disallowed Mail, 06/12/2012

Log Number: CSPC-5-12-03139

(Note: Log numbers are assigned to all appeals for tracking purposes)

Received
June 22, 2012
Resubmitted
July 4, 2012

The enclosed documents are being returned to you for the following reasons:

Your appeal has been rejected pursuant to the California Code of Regulations, Title 15, Section (CCR) 3084.6(b)(7). Your appeal is missing necessary supporting documents as established in CCR 3084.3. All documents must be legible (If necessary, you may obtain copy(ies) of requested documents by sending a request with a signed trust withdrawal form to your assigned counselor). Your appeal is missing:

Inmate [REDACTED] your appeal is dated 5/20/2012 but was received 6/12/2012. Your appeal is being rejected at this time due to a failure to attach supporting documentation. You must attempt to resolve this issue directly with Mailroom staff via the CDCR 22 form. The copy you have attached does not have anything in the body of your first request and is not complete or exhausted. You must attach a completed (through section D) CDCR 22 to the appeal and resubmit within 30 days for further consideration.

Be advised continued failure to comply with the instructions on any prior 695 will be considered an abuse of the appeals process and can be utilized as grounds to cancel future appeals or place you on appeals restriction. Resubmit within 30 days.

Appeals Coordinator
CSP-Corcoran

C/O S. TORRES

* IF You'll See Enclosed Doc. You'll See That I/M Has Attempted To Resolve This Matter Via I/M Request With The Warden. But It Was Sent To The Same Official Who Denied The Mail In The First Place. Completely Against CCR Mandate. You Are Here By Given Notice That Your Actions Of Rejecting My Appeal W/out Just Cause Is Cooperating CSPC Practice Of Mail Censorship. [See 3084.7.(1)(2) And (3)]

Be advised that you cannot appeal a rejected appeal, but should take the corrective action necessary and resubmit the appeal within the timeframes specified in CCR 3084.6(a) and CCR 3084.8(b). Pursuant to CCR 3084.6(e), once an appeal has been cancelled, that appeal may not be resubmitted. However, a separate appeal can be filed on the cancellation decision. The original appeal may only be resubmitted if the appeal on the cancellation is granted.

State of California
CDC FORM 695
Screening For:
CDC 602 Inmate/Parolee Appeals
CDC 1824 Reasonable Modification or Accommodation Request

PERMANENT APPEAL ATTACHMENT

RE: Screening at the FIRST Level

May 29, 2012

04AA3LC1052002LP

MAIL, Disallowed Mail, 05/22/2012

Log Number: CSPC-5-12-03139

(Note: Log numbers are assigned to all appeals for tracking purposes)

Received
June 4, 2012

The enclosed documents are being returned to you for the following reasons:

Your appeal has been rejected pursuant to the California Code of Regulations, Title 15, Section (CCR) 3084.6(b)(7). Your appeal is missing necessary supporting documents as established in CCR 3084.3. All documents must be legible (If necessary, you may obtain copy(ies) of requested documents by sending a request with a signed trust withdrawal form to your assigned counselor). Your appeal is missing:

Inmate [REDACTED] your appeal is dated 5/20/12. Your appeal is rejected you failed to complete all highlighted areas on CDCR 602. You failed to provide proof that you attempted to resolve this issue with mailroom staff via CDCR 22 prior to submitting an appeal. Follow above instructions and if issue remains unresolved you may resubmit within 30 days.

Appeals Coordinator
CSP-Corcoran

Att: Appeal Coord

According To 3084.3 An Inmate Is Not Required To Address Adverse Actions Taken Against Him/Her on A GA22, But Holds The "RIGHT" To Grievance. An A/W And A Captain Refused A Mail Publication w/out Explanation... This Has Nothing To Do With The Informal Level OR MailRoom. You Have My Signature, Now Process My Appeals OR SEND ME Your PRINTED NAME.

Return My APPEAL In A U-SAVE-EM As Its SENT.

Be advised that you cannot appeal a rejected appeal, but should take the corrective action necessary and resubmit the appeal within the timeframes specified in CCR 3084.6(a) and CCR 3084.8(b). Pursuant to CCR 3084.6(e), once an appeal has been cancelled, that appeal may not be resubmitted. However, a separate appeal can be filed on the cancellation decision. The original appeal may only be resubmitted if the appeal on the cancellation is granted.