RE: Appeal of impoundment of Under Lock & Key No. 35 and 36

Dear M

The Florida Department of Corrections' Literature Review Committee met on March 12, 2014 and as you requested, reevaluated these two issues of Under Lock & Key. The members of the Committee voted to stand with the original rejection of these issues due to what was considered an inflammatory tone in some of the language.

If any future issues of the publication are sent for review, the members of the Committee will carefully and thoughtfully consider whether they meet the standards for Admissible Reading Materials as set in Florida Administrative Code 33-501.401.

Sincerely,

Martha Morrison
Library Services Administrator
Literature Review Committee
