----------------------------	-------------------------	--	-----------------------------

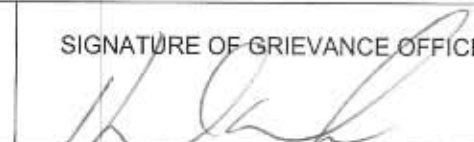

The following is a summary of my findings regarding your grievance:

I have reviewed your grievance submission regarding the Notice of Incoming Publication Denial. The publication, Under Lock and Key, was denied based on security concerns specifically that it contains writings that advocate, assist or are evidence of criminal activity or facility misconduct.

I have reviewed the publication and concur with the finding of the IPRC; this publication contains information that advocates criminal activity or facility misconduct.

The denial is sustained and this grievance is denied.
