

CCE REPORT
COMPLAINT NUMBER CCI-2016-16987
 ICRS CONFIDENTIAL *****

Complaint Information:

900.01.00 and encourages the inmate to review it. Apparently the inmate did review it and now challenges the procedure. The procedure has been in place since 02/11/13 at CCI. This examiner reviewed it and is in agreement with the inmate's claim that the institution's definition of "publish" in 900.01.00 is overly broad - "The process of production and dissemination of literature or information - the activity of making information available for public view." As well, there are other concerns with the procedure. It should be reviewed and revised so that it comports with the spirit of the administrative rule relevant to inmates who seek publication of written works. Accordingly, it is further recommended a copy of this appeal decision be provided to Warden Dittman and to Security Director Weber to effect revision of the procedure.
