Re: Book Appeal

Mr. Goggans,

I am in receipt of the correspondence you submitted concerning the mail seizure form for the publication, "Under Lock and Key July/August 2018, No. 63". As the supervisor designated to oversee inmate mail, I am authorized to review your appeal. I have determined that the initial decision for the book was proper and in accordance with the Sheriff's policies.

The publication advocates rebellion through in the anti-imperialism movement. The anti-imperialist movements want to secede from a larger polity. This is taken straight from the website, "Under Lock & Key (ULK) is the voice of the anti-imperialist movement within prisons in the United States." The publication actively seeks recruits for the movement and states they provide revolutionary materials.

This specific edition provides an article on the challenges and growth in recruiting skills and information about the New Afrikan Revolutionary Activist Movement. The publication will be placed in your property box.

Sincerely,
Cpl. K. Wallace
