Dear Mr. Summers:

Your November 1, 2013 appeal of the Department of Correction's decision to censor Under Lock & Key, Issue #34, was received. After review of your appeal and the censored material, I concur with the decision to censor Under Lock & Key, Issue #34. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dear MIM Distributors:

The Missouri Department of Corrections has reviewed the catalog Under Lock & Key Issue Nov/Dec 2013, sent to multiple offenders at various Department correctional facilities. This issue has been censored due to “Pg. 3-5 promotes anarchy” and this is not allowed into the institution, and has been prohibited from being delivered within the relevant facilities.

If you desire, you may request an independent review of the Committee’s determination by the Deputy Director of the Division of Adult Institutions. This request must be made in writing and mailed or faxed to the DAI Deputy Director at the address or facsimile number indicated below. Your request must be received by the DAI Deputy Director no later than thirty (30) calendar days following the date of this letter in order to be considered. The DAI Deputy Director’s response will be the final decision.

Dear Sir or Madam:

The Missouri Department of Corrections has reviewed the November/December 2013 issue of Under Lock and Key sent to multiple offenders at various department correctional facilities. This issue has been censored due to promoting, inciting or advocating violence; containing information which can be used to instill violence or hatred among the offender population; depicting, describing or encouraging activities which may lead to the use of physical violence or group disruption, and has been prohibited from being delivered within the relevant facilities.

If you desire, you may request an independent review of the Committee's determination by the Deputy Director of the Division of Adult Institutions. This request must be made in writing and mailed or faxed to the DAI Deputy Director at the address or facsimile number indicated below. Your request must be received by the DAI Deputy Director no later than thirty (30) calendar days following the date of this letter in order to be considered. The DAI Deputy Director's response will be the final decision.
