DISAPPROVAL OF PUBLICATION

This letter is to advise you that your publication entitled "Under Lock & Key" No. 51 for the month of July/August 2016, will not be delivered to the following inmate(s) housed at Chuckawalla Valley State Prison. This is based on a violation of the California Code of Regulations, (CCR) TITLE 15 Section 3135 Sub Sections (a) Non-Confidential correspondence may be disallowed if the text of such correspondence presents danger, or threat of danger, to any person. The authority to disallow such correspondence shall not be delegated below the staff level of Correctional/Facility. (c) Certain correspondence, including but not limited to the following, is disallowed, regardless of values or morals, in order to ensure safety and security of the institution/facility. (5) Concerns plans to disrupt the order, or breach the security, or any institution/facility. This publication contained Disturbing and Offensive content in the entire publication. The content of this publication is a safety and security concern.

Please be advised that you have the right per CCR Section 3137 (c) to appeal this issue. CCR 3137 states in part; "Appeals relating to a specific facility procedure or practice should be addressed in writing to the Warden, or Associate Director of the facility where the appeal issue arises. A written response shall be provided within 15 working days. Appeals that are not satisfactorily resolved at this level may be forwarded in writing to the Director of the Division of Adult Institutions (DAI) who shall provide a written response within 20 working days."

Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Chuckawalla Valley State Prison Mailroom Lieutenant at (760) 922-5300 ext. 5543.

Sincerely,
